Barnes Notes On The Old

Biography. Albert Barnes held a prominent place in the New School branch of the Presbyterians during the Old School-New School Controversy, to which he adhered on the division of the denomination in 1837; he had been tried (but not convicted) for heresy in 1836, mostly due to the views he expressed in Notes on Romans (1834) of the imputation of the sin of Adam, original sin and the atonement ...

the Nite Owl. A step through the doors of 3397 Lakeshore Blvd. West in Etobicoke is a step back. It is a time capsule; a time machine, simultaneously stuck in and transporting one back to to the late nineteen-forties, when a man called Joseph Fanfara, an Italian emigre, ran a bustling barbershop at that address.
