Beyond The Skyline

The previous Skyline film is set from the start of the alien invasion on the early morning pre-dawn hours to the nuclear destruction of Los Angeles one day and night later. However, this film shows the nuclear destruction of Los Angeles on the very first morning, several hours after the alien invasion begins rather than over 24 hours later on the second day of the invasion.

Beyond Skyline. Tone is a revealing element for this project, which it borrows from the B-movie, apocalyptic seriousness of a later "Transformers" sequel. One of the movie's biggest surprises is then that it has outtakes, which even include poking fun at how easily the intimidating alien's costume head can fall off.
